

Kitson is the Executive Director at IJ Homes and Children's Centres. He was previously Head, Centre for Non-Profit Leadership at NVPC. He currently serves as Advisor to the Board of Kowabunga Global Pte Ltd, a recipient of the President's Challenge Social Enterprise Award 2021 and Digital Philanthropy Ltd. He also serves on the Boards of Suncare SG (Charity), and GEN Singapore. He is an active grassroots volunteer, and an appointed Town Councillor of the Pasir Ris-Punggol Town Council. He is also a Professional member of the Singapore Institute of Directors. Kitson was formerly the Secretary-General and Board Member (2013-20) of the Asian Network for Quality; and Coordinating Secretary (2013-14) of the World Alliance for Quality – both international non-profit organisations. He had also served on the Boards of the Singapore Quality Institute (2004-2019) and SQI International (2016-2020). Kitson holds a Master of Science in Quality Management from the University of Stirling, Executive Education in Leadership for Global Business and Politics from the Yale School of Management.